

Sighting of Concrete Tower on Parry Island

At the AGM meeting of the South Channel Association held at Glenn Burney Lodge you may have noticed a concrete tower rising above the tree line on Parry Island.

Now visible from the water of Menominee Channel, at the top of the tower is the base for a water tank to provide drinking water and fire protection for the Parry Island Indian Reserve.

