ZUBER MOOT

Attention Upper Years: Today is your last day to sign up for the Zuber Moot. The sign up sheet will be taken down at NOON. Shortly thereafter, a list of appellants and respondents will be posted. This list will go up no later than Tuesday September 21st at 8am, along with the mooting schedule. It is YOUR responsibility to determine whether you are an appellant or respondent, so be sure to pass by the bulletin board in the lower pit.

Appellants: A table will be set up in the lower pit between 10am and 5pm in order for you to pick up your packages. Your factums will be due exactly one week later on Tuesday September 28th by NOON.

Respondents: A table will be set up in the lower pit between 1pm and 5pm on Tuesday September 28 for you to pick up your packages and the appellant's factum. Your factum will be due exactly one week later on Tuesday October 5th by NOON.

3rd Year Students: We would appreciate your help in signing up as a student judge for the Zuber Moots. The sign up sheet will be posted on Tuesday September 21st on the bulletin board in the lower pit. In the event that you do not want to judge, the Zuber Committee is still looking for markers. The application sheet can be found in the G.O.

1st Year Students: Sign up sheets for clerking will be posted on the bulletin board in the lower pit on Tuesday September 21st. Your help would be greatly appreciated.

CARBOLIC SMOKE BALL & SILENT AUCTION

This year's annual Carboloc Smoke Ball & Silent Auction will be held on October 2, 2004 at the Clearly International Centre. Tickets are currently on sale – $40.00 – and going fast! Also, sign-up sheets for table seating arrangements will be available early next week. Please contact Rob Maciver or Neil Rooke, or attend the SLS Office, for ticket information and sales. We hope to see everyone there!

WINDSOR REVIEW OF LEGAL AND SOCIAL ISSUES

The Windsor Review of Legal and Social Issues is seeking 'Editorial Assistants.' The duties of an 'Editorial Assistant' includes reading three papers, donating at least three hours of time to the Review and attending the Paper Selection Meeting tentatively scheduled for September 28 at 7 p.m.

Participation on a legal academic journal looks great on a resume! If you are interested, please attend a brief meeting on Wednesday, September 22 at 12 p.m. in the Moot Court.

Also, submissions are in and ready to be picked up and read. Any current Editorial Board members who did not attend the Editorial Meeting must either see Catherine or Kerri as soon as possible

STRESSED ALREADY?!

Women and the Law presents: BREATHE! Yoga for Windsor Law Beginners with instructor Gina Wasserlein at the Downtown Yoga Studio on Monday September 27, 2004 & Thursday September 30, 2004 @ 8:30 p.m. Tickets are $20/session each (cash only), and will be on sale in the Upper Pit 12:00 p.m.-1:00 p.m. on Monday September 20 & Wednesday September 22.

Proceeds will be donated to Windsor Women Working With Immigrant Women (or W5), a drop-in centre providing both educational and emotional support for immigrant and first generation Canadian women and their families. W5 offers English classes, child-care, and counseling. W5 also provides information, assistance, or referrals in such areas as social assistance, health inquiries, employment adjustment, etc.
