HEADNOTES

Message from the General Office

If you are trying to locate the Lawyers Weekly that were on the counter last year, they are now on the shelves beside the mailboxes. Please help yourselves.

Just a reminder that we now have 3 bulletin boards of information. The bulletin board to the West of the General Office contains information from the Academic Coordinator. The bulletin board to the East of the General Office contains class information and other general information from the General Office. The bulletin board north of the Law Library entrance contains general interest articles pertaining to faculty, students and alumni. As well this bulletin board contains information on scholarships, bursaries and writing contests. Please check out all of the boards for information that might interest you.

C.L.A.I.H.R.: LET'S PUT OUR LAPTOPS TO A USE BETTER THAN NOTE-TAKING

C.L.A.I.H.R., University of Windsor, Faculty of Law Chapter, has recently joined Amnesty International's Urgent Action Network. Every month C.L.A.I.H.R. will receive a casesheet outlining details about a particular individual at immediate risk and asking us to write and send appeals by the fastest means possible. After C.L.A.I.H.R. receives a request, the executive will study the case and prepare information for our members. We will then hold a meeting (1-1.5 hours, with light refreshments) during which the case will be briefed, discussed and appeal letters written. C.L.A.I.H.R. members (non-members and faculty are most definitely welcome) will be responsible only for writing their individual letters. The executive will take responsibility for addressing and mailing the letters.

Keep your eyes to the television screens and headnotes for the date of our first letter writing meeting. If you have any questions feel free to email either Melissa Mark at mmark999@yahoo.ca or Megan Street at megs3333@cogeco.ca

Awareness is crucial but it alone cannot effect change. Put your fingers to your laptops for people who need our help!

Social Orientation—With Thanks

The SLS would like to acknowledge the hard work and flawless execution of this year's Social Orientation events. We would also like to give credit to the student body, both first years and returning students, in making the events a success and welcoming the class of 2007 into the fold. We would also like to take this opportunity to thank the sponsors of the Social Orientation events, because without their support this last month would not have been possible.

Access to Justice Committee

Did you come to law school interested in making your community a better place? Do you feel that the schools 'Access to Justice' theme is unrealized? Would you like to join a small group of dedicated students on projects and initiatives around the law school and greater Windsor area that truly endeavor to reach the goal of Access to Justice? If interested please contact Kai Brown or send an email to sfsp@uwindsor.ca.
