Hosted by the Detroit Zoological Society

Urban Bird Summit: Status, Trends, and Risks to Species that Call the Corridor Home

Thursday, November 9th, 2017, 8:30am-5:00pm
Detroit Zoo – Ford Education Center
8450 W. 10 Mile Rd., Royal Oak, MI

The State of the Strait is a Canada-U.S. one-day conference held every two years that brings together government managers, researchers, students, environmental and conservation organizations, and concerned citizens to assess ecosystem status and provide advice to improve research, monitoring, and management. In coordination with Detroit's 2017 designation as an Urban Bird Treaty City, the State of the Strait, the Detroit Zoo, and the Metro Detroit Nature Network have partnered to present a conference with the theme "Urban Bird Summit: Status, Trends, and Risks to Species that Call the Corridor Home".

For more information about the State of the Strait conference, including registration and location, please visit www.stateofthestrain.org. Display space is available for conference sponsors and vendors, and poster presentations are still being accepted. Thank you.
